COLTS STRIKE A SNAG AND DROP TWO GAMES

Lynchburg Team Comes to Life and Plays Champions Off Their Feet.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., June 2.—Lynchrg ran away with Richmond in the first double-header of the Virginia cisive scores 7 to 0 and 7 to 3.

The second game would have been another shut-out but for a muff by Nichols of an infield fly in the sixth. This play, which should have retired the side, filled the bases, and then clean hits by Sandherr and Titman scored a trio of runs.

Had Them Guessing.

Vernuelie was so effective that not a single Colt went to second in the first game. Only one effort was made for this corner, when Ross killed Sandherr's attempted sical in the second-herr's attempted sical in the second-herr's attempted sical in the second-nutten Academy inished the baseball season to-day by defeating the strong Winchester team by a score of 4 to 2. Castele pitched a good game, allowing one hit less than Shiner, the semi-professional, who helped Winchester win the State championship last year, when that team defeated the leaders of the Virginia State League. Massanutten's runs were earned from three singles and two two-base hits in three innings. Castele struck out nine. Shiner struck out ten, and each passed one. Winchester scored only in the first inning. Massanutten scored one in the first, two in the fourth and one in the fifth. Winchester made five hits and one error; Massanutten seven hits and four errors. The batteries were Shiner and C. Grim and Castele and Koontz. The feature was Irwin's run and sensational one-hand catch, cutting off runs that would have tied the score.
